

Registration
for the Global Biobased Businessplan Competition (G-BiB) 2021/2022
Team name:

--

Team members (2-6):

Name:
Email:
University:		Level:
Faculty:
Name:
Email:
University:		Level:
Faculty:
Name:
Email:
University:		Level:
Faculty:
Name:
Email:
University:		Level:
Faculty:
Name:
Email:
University:		Level:
Faculty:
Name:
Email:
University:		Level:
Faculty:

Team mentor:

Name:
Email:
University:
Faculty:

Non-confidential description of the business idea (max. 500 signs incl. spaces)

All team members, including the mentor, have read the regulations and additional information published at https://bigc-initiative.eu/documents/gbib_regulations21.pdf and accept the terms and conditions.

Please send this PDF filled in completely to the respective national organiser.

Finland: reeta.huhtinen@turkubusinessregion.com

Germany: kriebs@clib-cluster.de

United Kingdom: alice.north@york.ac.uk

The G-BiB 2021/2022 is organised Smart Chemistry Park, operated by Turku Science Park in Finland, Cluster industrial biotechnology in Germany, and BioVale in the United Kingdom.

The competition receives funding from:

SPONSORED BY THE

Federal Ministry of Education and Research

Research
England

European Union
European Regional Development Fund

